

Goethe Yearbook -- Guidelines for Book Reviews

Thank you for agreeing to provide a book review for the Goethe Yearbook.

Please submit the review as a Microsoft Word document.

Reviews should be written in Times New Roman 12-point typeface and double-spaced.

Following the general Yearbook formatting guidelines, please do not use formatting commands such as page numbers, headers and footers, page or section breaks. Pages should be justified to the left margin.

Your review should be between 750 and 1,000 words. Please do not exceed 1,000 words for a review of one work.

Please format your review following the model below. If applicable, include front matter (Roman numerals) and number of illustrations, tables, etc.

From Goethe Yearbook 29 (2022):

Krimmer, Elisabeth and Lauren Nossett, eds. Writing the Self, Creating Community: German Women Authors and the Literary Sphere, 1750-1850. Rochester, NY: Camden House, 2020, viii + 319 pp.

[body of review, double spaced]

Christopher Newport University

Laura Deiulio

If you have questions or would like to suggest a recent publication for review, please contact the book review editor: Joe O'Neil, Miami University (Ohio), oneiljd@miamioh.edu